Ms. Lockman is a member of the Real Estate and Banking Practice Groups. She represents both buyers and sellers in connection with complex commercial and industrial real estate transactions and represents banks and other financial institutions in real estate and real estate financing transactions.

She concentrates her real estate finance practice on facilitating a variety of multi-million dollar financial arrangements secured by, or for the development or acquisition of, real estate. Such arrangements include syndicated loan transactions, mortgage warehousing lines of credit, mortgage loans, land acquisition loans and construction financing for diverse projects.

Ms. Lockman also represents clients in acquisition, disposition, and leasing of real estate with an emphasis on commercial properties such as office buildings, industrial buildings, and warehouses.

She is listed in Michigan Rising Stars 2019 under Real Estate and in DBusiness Magazine "Top Lawyers" 2020 under Real Estate. In law school, Ms. Lockman served as Executive Editor of the Journal of Legislation. She also participated in the economic justice program at the Notre Dame legal aid clinic and served as a judicial intern for Justice Michael F. Cavanaugh of the Michigan Supreme Court. Currently, she is a Co-Chair of the Inforum Downtown Detroit Affinity Group, a networking group which engages businesses, companies, and organizations within the Detroit city limits. She is also a member of the Detroit Economic Club.
