

Mara Letica Saad Of Counsel

Troy
T 248-743-6072
msaad@bodmanlaw.com

Mara Letica Saad joined Bodman following a distinguished career as Executive Vice President, General Counsel, and Secretary of Letica Corporation, a global leader in the packaging industry.

At Letica Corporation, Saad was responsible for all legal matters as well as corporate administration, finance, human resources, IT, and governmental affairs for a complex manufacturing business with facilities in 13 U.S. states.

Before joining Letica Corporation she practiced commercial and insurance defense litigation with the law firm now known as Bullivant, Houser Bailey P.C. in Portland, Oregon. She also served in the Office of the Prosecuting Attorney for King County (Seattle), Washington.

She has a long history of political activism and support of charitable organizations and public policy initiatives.

HONORS, AWARDS, AND RECOGNITION

- Crain's Detroit Business, Metro Detroit's Most Influential Women

CIVIC, CULTURAL, AND COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

- Michigan State University College of Law Journal of International Law
- The Motor City Lyric Opera, Board of Directors
- Capuchin Soup Kitchen
- Cornerstone Schools
- Mackinac Center for Public Policy, Past Board Member
- The Parade Company—Michigan Thanksgiving Parade Foundation, Past Member
- Eastern Michigan University, Former Trustee

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- Michigan Statewide Independent Living Council
- Michigan Talent Investment Board
- Plastic Shipping Container Institute, Member and Past President
- American Corporate Counsel Association

practices & industries

Business

education

Seattle University, J.D.

University of Michigan, B.A.

admissions

Michigan

professional affiliations

State Bar of Michigan

Oakland County Bar
Foundation

- Commercial Law League of America
- State Bar of Michigan
- Oakland County Bar Association