Mr. Ravenscroft represents financial institutions and other secured and unsecured creditors in connection with commercial bankruptcy issues and disputes.

He has experience representing corporate clients in a wide range of commercial and business law matters involving breach of contract, commercial collections, complex business transactions, foreclosures, and various other transactions and disputes. He has also represented financial institutions, mortgage lenders and servicers, and various municipal entities in connection with real estate law matters and related litigation.

Before joining Bodman in December 2018, he practiced bankruptcy law and real estate law for nearly five years with two highly regarded southeast Michigan boutique law firms.

Mr. Ravenscroft is admitted to practice before the United States District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Michigan and the United States District Court for the Southern District of Illinois.

While in law school, Mr. Ravenscroft was active in Moot Court and served on the editorial board of the WMU-Cooley Law Review.
